Course Goals

Course Description

A study of the Christian doctrines of Christ, salvation, the church, and eschatology. Students will think critically about areas of theological diversity and consensus, read primary sources, and begin to form their own statement of faith.

Relationship to MCS-Horizon's Missions

This course helps students develop their competence as Christian leaders by becoming more knowledgeable as to how theology (i.e., Christian teaching about God and all things in relation to God) is formed, by practicing the statement and revision of one's own theology, and by evaluating the theology of others with a humble and teachable spirit.

Core Competencies and Learning Outcomes

To demonstrate competency in Biblical and Theological Literacy students will:

- 1) Create and discuss a personal statement of faith regarding the Christian doctrines of Christ, salvation, the church, the sacraments/ordinances, and eschatology.
 - Assessment: Statement of Faith
- 2) Identify the areas of historical consensus and key areas of debate regarding the Christian doctrines of Christ, salvation, the church, the sacraments/ordinances, and eschatology.
 - Assessment: Theology Tests; Comparison Paper
- 3) Theologically evaluate the church they attend.
 - Assessment: Church Theological Assessment

Course Assignments and Activities

1. Reading Summaries.

You will write four (4) Reading Summaries, one each on chapters 6, 7, 9 and 10 of Jones, Practicing Christian Doctrine. For each of these Reading Summaries you need to do the following:

- i. Write a 3-4 sentence Statement of Consensus of the Christian teaching on the topic(s) of the chapter. (Your Reading Summaries for Jones, ch. 7 and Jones, ch. 9 require two Statements of Consensus, since those chapters deal with two topics each [work of Christ and salvation; church and sacraments/ordinances, respectively]).

- ii. Make a list of theological concepts that appear in the chapter. For each, (a) attempt to classify the concept as consensus, debated, or heretical; and (b) give a one-sentence definition.

These assignments will be self-assessed, meaning you will receive feedback on your (i) Statement of Consensus, but you will be responsible for comparing an answer key to your own (ii) list of theological concepts. No resubmissions are required, as this assignment is not formally assessed for competency. An example Reading Summary is available on Populi under Files (Example Reading Summary – Jones, ch. 8).

This assignment has many purposes: to serve, in addition to the lectures, as the main preparation for your Theology Tests (Assignment 2); to give you the foundation needed to evaluate the theology of others, as you will do in your Comparison Papers (Assignment 3); to stimulate your thinking regarding your own theology for your Statement of Faith (Assignment 5); and to begin demonstrating competency in identifying areas of historical consensus and key areas of debate regarding Christian doctrines (see Learning Outcome #2).

- Related learning outcome(s): #2.
- Assignment length: 300-600 words / 1-2 pages each.
- Due dates: Tues Jan 14, 21, 28; Wed Feb 5

2. Theology Tests (30%).

You will write two (2) short tests (up to two hours each) during the course on major ideas in Christian theology. The tests will take place on Populi. You must finish your tests before 11:59pm (SK time) on the due date. To prepare for the tests you will attend class and complete your Reading Summaries (Assignment 1). When taking the tests, you will not be allowed to use any notes nor the textbook; the tests are closed book. The tests will ask you to:

- i. Part 1: briefly explain in 3-4 sentences the historical consensus of the church (i.e., orthodoxy) regarding the beliefs studied in this course.
- ii. Part 2: attempt to classify (as consensus, aberrant or diversity, with explanation) and identify various beliefs studied in this course.

Before you take your test, please see the lesson called “Notes Regarding Your Theology Tests.”

The purpose of this assignment is to demonstrate competence in identifying the areas of historical consensus and key areas of debate regarding the Christian doctrines of Christ, salvation, the church, and eschatology (see Learning Outcome #2).

- Related learning outcome(s): #2.
- Assignment length: <2 hours.
- Due dates: Fri Jan 24; Fri Feb 7

3. Theology Comparison Paper (20%).

For the Comparison Paper in this course, write 3-4 pages (900-1200 words) comparing the ecclesiology in Jones, ch. 9 and one of Grenz, chs. 17-18; Macchia, chs. 12-13; or Migliore, chs. 12-13 (see Required Readings above). The focus of this assignment is demonstrating competency in extended interpretation, that is, whether or not you can correctly identify and explain similarities and differences between what the two authors teach about the church, as well as evaluation, that is, making your own judgments – with reasoning and charity – about the teaching of the two authors.

The purpose of the Comparison Paper is to explain and identify various ways that Christians have understood the doctrine of the church (see Learning Outcome #2), and thereby to prepare for the Church Theological Assessment (Assignment 4).

- To complete this assignment, students will follow these guidelines:
 - Follow the MCS-Horizon Format Guide.
 - Appear to include citations in footnotes when paraphrasing, summarizing, or quoting from other sources.
 - Compare Jones chapter 9 with a related chapter, as identified above.
- Related learning outcome(s): #2.
- Assignment length: 900-1200 words / 3-4 pages.
- Due dates: Mon Feb 3

4. Church Theological Assessment (20%).

A unique assignment for this course, in comparison with Theology I, is an extensive theological assessment of the church you attend (or your home church). The purpose of this assignment is to demonstrate theological literacy by articulating and applying your understanding of ecclesiology to an evaluation of your own church (see Learning Outcome #3). Preparation for this paper involves the following elements:

- i. Regular class lectures, discussion and reading on ecclesiology.
- ii. The Comparison Paper on ecclesiology (Assignment 3).
- iii. Attending a Protestant liturgical church service during this course. Aside from participating in worship, the aim of your visit is to pay attention to the theology that is expressed, both explicitly and implicitly, through the service. Preparation for this element will be provided in class.
- iv. At least one interview with a pastor from the church being assessed.

The paper has four parts:

- a) Introduction (approx. ½ page). Identify which church you are assessing (i.e., name, location, denomination, pastor/leader); and when and where you attended a Protestant liturgical church service to prepare for this paper.
- b) What is the Church? (approx. 2 pages): Evaluate your church theologically in relation to the nature of the Church. This part of your paper should address how your church expresses its identity, both explicitly (e.g., in worship, prayer, formal statements) and implicitly (what is implied by an action or statement, or by silence or absence), in relation to some or all of the following:
 - The Lordship of Christ, the promised power of the Spirit, the unity of the Church, the global Church, the “world”/non-Christians, etc.
 - How does your church think of itself as a “body”, “community”, “fellowship”, etc.?
 - Are those in the church thought of as “saints”, “disciples”, “members”, etc.?
 - Does your church have a vision and/or mission? How does this relate to the mission of the whole Church? the mission of God?

c) What does the Church do? (approx. 3 pages): Evaluate your church theologically in relation to the practice of the Church. What takes place in a church service? outside of a worship service? Why is it done? What theology is behind it? This part of your paper may address some or all of the following:

- How the church stands – or not – under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. (Remember theological humility, as well as boldness, here!)
- How various actions in the service (e.g., reading of scripture, worship, prayer, sacraments) express a theology of those actions, whether explicitly or implicitly.
- How various activities outside of service (e.g., food bank, weddings, Bible studies) expresses a theology of those actions, whether explicitly or implicitly.

You must identify and discuss at least two (2) theological suggestions, with reasoning, regarding how your church could be more faithful to its Lord in its nature and/or practice. You must also give two comparisons between your church and the Protestant liturgical service.

d) Conclusion (approx. ½ page). Summarize your assessment of your church, briefly restating its nature and practice, how it compares to a Protestant liturgical service, and suggestions.

Throughout your paper you should explicitly draw on all of the following sources, including footnotes where appropriate:

- Jones, Practicing Christian Doctrine, ch. 9 and one of Grenz, Macchia, or Migliore (based on your Comparison Paper).
- Class lectures and discussion.
- Interview(s) with leadership at your church.
- Your own observations at your church (no footnotes needed).
- At least two (2) theological comparisons between your church and your participation in a Protestant liturgical church service during this course (no footnotes needed).

Your paper should be about six (6) pages (1800 words +/- 10% = 1620-1980 words) in length, not including footnotes and bibliography.

- To complete this assignment, students will follow these guidelines:
 - Follow the MCS-Horizon Format Guide
 - Appear to include citations in footnotes when paraphrasing, summarizing, or quoting from other sources.
 - Include a bibliography.
 - Explicitly draw, using footnotes, on all the sources indicated in the syllabus.
 - Follow the outline and lengths of Parts A, B, C, and D, as specified in the syllabus.
 - Indicate where and when the student attended a Protestant liturgical service, the church the student is assessing (name, location, denomination), and those in church leadership interviewed (Part A).
 - Summarize the student's assessment of the church, briefly restates its nature and practice, how it compares to a Protestant liturgical service, and the suggestions given (Part D).
- Related learning outcome(s): #3.

- Assignment length: 1800 words / 6 pages.
- Due date: Tues Feb 11.

5. Statement of Faith (30%).

Over the course of Theology I & II, as well as in T311 Holy Spirit and the Church, you will develop your own Statement of Faith. You will write the second half of a Statement of Faith on the six theological topics covered in this course. You will write 1/3 to 1/2 of a page for each of the following six topics: person of Christ, work of Christ, salvation, church, sacraments or ordinances, and eschatology. These six must be included as headings for your Statement of Faith. You should be guided by the class lectures; the readings from Jones, Practicing Christian Doctrine; and the in-class group discussion of a denominational Statement of Faith. Your Statement of Faith should:

- address the topics you consider most important in Christian teaching (in less than 3 pages);
- use theological terminology properly, explaining the teachings in some detail;
- speak, additionally, to issues that are disputed among Christians (if these are among what you consider most important to say).

Do not include quotations from Scripture in the body of your Statement of Faith; rather, cite Scripture in parentheses. For example: everything God makes is good (Gen 1:31).

By Friday, February 14 at the latest, and after you have submitted your Statement of Faith, you will have a short 15-minute interview with the professor in which he will ask you questions specifically about what you have written. These questions may ask you to clarify or explain certain statements, ask why you regarded certain topics as important (or left others out), and/or ask you to explain why you believe what you believe. Your assessment for this assignment will be based on both the final written Statement of Faith and your interview.

The purpose of this assignment is to demonstrate competency in creating and discussing a personal statement of faith.

- To complete this assignment, students will follow these guidelines:
 - Follow the MCS-Horizon Format Guide
 - The outline of the Statement of Faith is divided according to the syllabus description (6 sections).
 - Scripture references are included in parenthesis.
 - Guided by class lectures, Practicing Christian Doctrine, and the in-class group discussion of a denominational Statement of Faith.
- Related learning outcome(s): #1.
- Assignment length: 900 words / ≤3 pages.
- Due dates: Wed Feb 12; Fri Feb 14 (by the latest).

Video-on-Demand (VOD) Student Requirements

As indicated on the course schedule, this class is being offered by VOD. Students taking the course through VOD are required to indicate this during their course registration. While VOD recordings are available for any student who may be absent from class, non-VOD students are expected to attend class live following the class attendance policy

- For this course, VOD students have the same assignment due dates as in-class students.

- Each week for five weeks, VOD students are required to watch and engage with all lecture content and in-class activities from one full day of the module, according to the following schedule:
 - Day 1 Lectures & Padlet Report: completed by January 11, 2025.
 - Day 2 Lectures & Padlet Report: completed by January 18, 2025
 - Day 3 Lectures & Padlet Report: completed by January 25, 2025.
 - Day 4 Lectures & Padlet Report: completed by February 1, 2025.
 - Day 5 Lectures & Padlet Report: completed by February 8, 2025.
- By Saturday at 11:59pm each week, VOD students will submit to Padlet a 2–3-minute video that 1) affirms you have watched the required recording for the last seven days, 2) summarizes one thing you learned that week that will help you reach the course learning outcomes, and 3) explains at least one question you had after watching the class recording.
- In order to pass the course, VOD students must submit all of their VOD weekly submissions. These submissions are marked pass/fail based on whether or not they demonstrate thoughtful engagement with the lecture content and in-class activities.

Academic Policies

General Assignment Guidelines

Please see the MCS-Horizon Format Guide for assignment submission, grammar, and formatting guidelines.

Late Assignments and Extensions

Students are expected to submit work by the assigned due dates, as part of their development of the Leadership and Administration competency. To submit extension requests, students must submit the Assignment Extension Request Form on Populi and before the due date. Professors may grant extensions in the case of extenuating circumstances, such as significant illness or a family emergency. Furthermore, no extensions will be granted beyond the final day of a term or semester unless approval is granted by the Associate Academic Dean (MCS) or Assistant Academic Dean (Horizon).

Late submissions will be tracked across each student's program. If a student incurs multiple instances of late submissions, it will result in academic discipline, such as required tutoring, academic probation, failure of the course, or failure to qualify for graduation. Similar to standard human resource employment practices, students will receive warnings and conditions with increasing severity of academic discipline. If one assignment is submitted more than five days late, the student will fail the course.

Assignment Completion

Professors usually will not accept assignments that have not been completed according to the instructions given in the syllabus. If a professor informs a student that a submitted assignment is incomplete, the student will be given the opportunity to complete and resubmit the assignment quickly. If this is not possible, the assignment will be regarded as submitted late.

Assignment Revisions

Students can generally submit up to two revisions for each assignment, although a professor may accept more revisions if the professor determines the student is addressing all of the professor's instructions and making significant progress toward achieving competency.

MCS-Horizon College Assessment of Student Work

The goal of courses is to help students develop their competency, not earn letter grades. Assignments are the means by which instructors evaluate development of competency by assessing learning outcomes as outlined in the syllabus and each assignment rubric. Once a student's assignment has met all competency requirements, the professor will assign a grade for that assignment. Likewise, a final course grade is not calculated until the end of the course. Students pass a course (with a B- or higher) only after they have demonstrated that they have met or exceeded all competency requirements for that course and, therefore, only after they have passed all assignments.

MCS-Horizon CBE Scale		Descriptor	Letter Grade	Grade Point	U of S Equivalency
E	Exceeding expectations	Student demonstrated exceptional achievement of the learning outcomes.	A+	4.0	90-100
		Student demonstrated excellent achievement of the learning outcomes.	A	4.0	85-89
			A-	3.7	80-84
M	Meeting expectations	Student demonstrated good achievement of all learning outcomes.	B+	3.3	77-79
			B	3.0	73-76
			B-	2.7	70-72

If the student does not meet all competency requirements in a course and, therefore, does not pass all the assignments in a course, the course will not be sufficient to fulfill their program requirements at MCS-Horizon. Nevertheless, for transferability purposes, the student will receive a letter grade of C+ or below according to the scale below.

BTM	Beginning to meet expectations	Student was beginning to meet one or more learning outcomes.	C+	2.3	67-6968
			C	2.0	63-66
			C-	1.7	60-62
NYM	Not yet meeting expectations	Student made insufficient progress toward meeting learning outcomes.	D+	1.3	57-59
			D	1.0	53-56
			D-	0.7	50-52
			F	0.0	0-49

Academic Integrity

Students learn best when practicing academic integrity. A lack of integrity is displayed in acts such as deception, abuse of confidentiality, cheating, inappropriate collaboration, or plagiarism. Plagiarism occurs when a student presents the words or ideas of another person or an artificial intelligence (AI) tool in such a way as to give others the impression that it is their own words or ideas. In academic writing, there should be no doubt which words or ideas are the student's, and which are drawn from other sources or AI. Students are expected to submit their own original work and give due recognition to sources from which all substantial phrases, sentences or even ideas are drawn. Note also that you may not submit work done in one course to satisfy the requirements of another course (unless both instructors agree beforehand to accept such work). See here for examples of plagiarism and further guidelines in the Student Handbook.

Accessible Learning Services Information

MCS-Horizon aims to provide an accessible learning environment for all our students. If you would benefit from learning accommodations due to temporary or ongoing physical or mental health conditions or learning disabilities, please contact us as soon as possible to schedule a conversation. In all cases we ask that you provide current documentation of the disability or condition you wish to disclose. MCS-Horizon takes appropriate care to ensure confidentiality about any such disclosures. For more information, contact Wendy Holmes, MCS's Director of Academic Success (wendy.holmes@mcs.edu), or Richelle Bekkattla, Horizon's Library Technician and Academic Accommodations Coordinator (library@horizon.edu).

Class Attendance

Students should attend all classes in order to facilitate competency development. Students are expected to be present through the delivery method that they registered for, either on campus or through livestreaming with their camera on. A student must be present for the full duration of a class period in order to be registered as present for the class. In the case of illness or other unforeseen circumstances, students may miss the equivalent of six hours of class (e.g., one day of a module course or two three-hours classes) without academic penalty. Students who are absent for more than this will automatically fail the course. Students wishing to be exempted from this policy due to extenuating circumstances may make an academic appeal, where they will need to document and verify those circumstances. Students who miss a class are responsible to get missed notes or handouts from another student, rather than from the professor.

Livestreaming Etiquette

Students taking the course through livestreaming are required to indicate this during their course registration. While livestreaming access is available for on-campus students who are unable to attend class due to illness, on-campus students are expected to attend class in person following the class attendance policy.

If attending class online via livestream, to be marked present for class, you must keep your camera on and stay present and attentive throughout the class session, extending the gift of engagement. Access your class with a computer (preferably) or tablet, not a cell phone. Arrive to class on time, and dress as you would if you were attending class on campus. Join the class from a quiet space with minimal background noise and mute your microphone until you wish to speak to the class.

Use of Technology

MCS-Horizon encourages the use of electronic devices in the classroom to enhance learning. Careful consideration must be given to privacy issues, copyrighted materials, and the general care and concern for others. Please respect the following classroom policies:

- Please use online access for course learning only. This is a matter of respect for the instructor's teaching, your own learning, and fellow students who may be distracted by other uses.
- Students should secure permission from the instructor to record any teaching material. This includes PowerPoint slides, white board illustrations, notes, and any form of audio or video.
- Student feedback is a valuable input for course improvements. Please resolve any classroom grievance about the instructor or course with the instructor personally, through the grievance procedures, or the Populi-based course evaluations. It is inappropriate to air classroom grievances on a social media platform.
- When instructors use recording mechanisms in the classroom, recorded materials will be used for the sole purpose of instruction and cannot be released to any social media outlet without the written consent of the students whose images have been recorded.
- In general, it is not acceptable to share photographs or videos of students in the classroom setting without permission from those whose images appear in such media.
