WINTER 2027 COLLEGE TEXTBOOK LIST

Students may access textbooks in one of two ways:

1. The Digital Theological Library

   Students have the benefit of accessing many of their textbooks online through the Digital Theological Library (DTL); however, access at any given time cannot be guaranteed due to user license agreements. Similar to borrowing a library book, resources on the DTL are available to access (not order or purchase). When applicable, DTL links are included on textbook lists. In some instances, a title will have multiple access options, which will be indicated by an asterisk after the link (e.g. DTL*). To find these additional access options (e.g. ProQuest, e-Reserves, VLeBooks), search the DTL by the title, author, or ISBN. Contact the library if you have difficulty finding or accessing content.

   Please note that students will not have access to the DTL upon graduation. Therefore, we encourage students to purchase select textbooks to build their personal library.

2. Purchase

   Students may choose to purchase books. This is a good option for building a personal library, for students who prefer to read books in hard copy, or for ensuring access to books that may not be available on the DTL. When purchasing books, please place your orders as soon as you receive this list to help ensure you have your books well in advance of your class start date. Consider purchasing textbooks through the following avenues:

   - Kennedy's Parable (Saskatoon, SK) For your convenience, Horizon has partnered with Kennedy's Parable to provide textbooks through their online store. Please place your order at least 2.5 weeks in advance.
   - The publisher's website (e.g., IVP Academic, Zondervan, Baker Academic, etc.) Note: publishers' websites may be in American currency.
   - Christian Book Note: American currency.
   - Amazon.ca
   - Indigo
   - AddALL USED
   - AbeBooks USED

When ordering your textbook, make sure to note the ISBN number and the edition number as specified in the bibliographic information.
